

Let's Go To The Movies...

An Informal Compilation of Ads From "Wheeling's Finest Theatre"

Collected and compiled by
Dr. Charles A. Julian, PhD

June 2009

Introduction

A recent Friends of Wheeling meeting, convened at the Capitol Theatre in downtown Wheeling, sparked many personal memories. It was fascinating to peer into the sparse dressing rooms and walk through parts of the building which I had never before seen.

As a Wheeling native, I recollected the many times that I visited the Capitol to see movies on its huge screen and to enjoy the refreshing air conditioning during hot, sticky summers (when the only home air conditioning was a coveted shady spot somewhere on the porch).

This visit rekindled an interest in conducting additional research into specifics related to this unique building. Research efforts led me to the microfilm newspaper collections at the Ohio County Public Library.

As I looked through this material, I began to wonder what kinds of movies and/or shows were held in the Capitol Theatre. So, I began a search for movie and other ads describing Capitol Theatre events.

The search was somewhat random in nature – I used the anniversary date of November 29th to retrieve newspaper ads. The images are scratchy looking due to the overuse of microfilm and ads were only captured and pasted into this document – no fancy graphics were utilized.

Nonetheless, I think that you find some interesting tidbits in these ads. From free giveaways like live rabbits or Elvis Presley souvenir leis to quirky movies including “Santa Claus Conquers The Martians” or “Love Slaves of the Amazons,” a varied menu of entertainment has lured local residents to “Wheeling’s Finest Theatre.”

If you enjoyed perusing this collection of ads, I encourage you to Consider contributing to the Capitol Theatre Preservation Fund online at: www.capitoltheatrewheeling.com/donate.php or by contacting the Community Foundation for the Ohio Valley at: 304-242-3144.

More information on the building’s opening can be found at: http://wheeling.weirton.lib.wv.us/history/landmark/business/Capitol\_Theatre.pdf

So, look past the scratchy and skewed images and thumb through an interesting and varied collection of local movie and entertainment advertisements.

Enjoy!
