

JAMES TRAUTWEIN COLLECTION

Shenandoah and Other Airships:

Letter from Wheeling-Ohio County Airport manager – thanks for loan of Shenandoah pictures. 1987

28 color prints of Shenandoah crash site; color negatives of Shenandoah crash site photos

30 b&w prints of 1920s pictures of Shenandoah and the crash site; also negatives of these.

14 postcards from 'a set of six postcards reproducing rare photographs from the book Airshipwreck by Len Deighton.' -- Shenandoah and various German airships.

2 copies : 33 1/3 rpm 7" record "The Hindenburg disaster," promoting Airshipwreck by Len Deighton.

14 plastic sleeves with material about the Hindenburg – mostly book illustrations, probably from The Hindenburg by Michael Mooney.

Ford Tri-Motor at Ohio County Airport:

2 fact sheets on Ford Tri-Motor s/n 38 n7584 from visit to Ohio County Airport in 1987

Clipping about the 1987 visit

9 color pictures of the Ford Tri-Motor during the visit

6 b&w half-tone pictures of the Ford Tri-Motor

Books and Magazines:

Air Progress. Special collectors edition: The epic flight of the Voyager. 1987

The National Geographic Magazine, June 1930. "The first airship flight around the world."

Shenandoah saga / by Thom Hook. Annapolis, Md. Air Show Publishers, 1973.

Sky ship: the Akron era / by Thom Hook. Baltimore, Md., Airshow Publishers, c1976.

Other pictures:

Color negatives of television coverage of Titanic discovery? Also a few street scenes, 1987 – Pythian Castle, Market Street, Stifel Center.

