

REUTHER-POLLACK Labor Heritage Week 2018

Celebrating the Hard Working People of Appalachia

All events occur at the First State Capitol [FSC] at 1413 Eoff Street or at the Ohio County Public Library [OCPL] at 52-16th Street, both in Wheeling.

FULL SCHEDULE

Aug. 27 at 7 pm at FSC: “American Socialist - The Life of Eugene Victor Debs” Free film screening

Aug. 28 at noon at OCPL: “Going West Virginia on You” with Jack Seitz

Aug. 28 at 7 pm at OCPL: “Appalachia in the Age of Neoliberalism” with Lou Martin

Aug. 29 at 7 pm at FSC: “Brothers on the Line” [Reuther brothers] Free film screening

Aug. 30 at noon at OCPL: Never Justice, Never Peace with author Ginny Savage Ayers

Aug. 30 at 7 pm at FSC: “Songs of Protest and the Working Class”
Featuring musicians Tom Breiding, Jason Kendall and Mike Stout. Cover: $10

Aug. 31 at 7 pm at FSC: “Francis Pier-Pint Historic Brew-Off” Featuring history talks by Travis Henline, Hal Gorby, and Ryan Stanton & Beer by the Wheeling Alers. Tickets: $30

Sept. 1, 2018 at FSC: Reuther-Pollack Labor History Symposium II

Made Possible by WV Humanities Council & Wheeling Heritage. Admission: $20 (includes lunch) Call 303-905-1690.

In Solidarity: Battle of Homestead Foundation, Bishop Whelan Ancient Order of Hibernians, Ohio County Public Library, WALs Foundation, WV Humanities Council, WV Independence Hall Foundation, WV Independence Hall Museum, WV Mine Wars Museum, Wheeling Heritage, and WVU Press.

More info on our Facebook events page @WALSFoundation | www.walswheeling.com | spd@walslaw.com